

TEARS Hollywood star Hanks

Deserted Tom: I was so lonely I found a wife

BY KAREN ROCKETT

HOLLYWOOD legend Tom Hanks almost cries as he describes the loneliness of his "vagabond" childhood on Desert Island Discs today.

He picks the theme to 2001: A Space Odyssey to recall his nomadic childhood with his chef dad, living in 10 houses in five years.

He tells Radio 4's Kirsty Young: "This was the 'wow' moment going from kid trying to figure out what's interesting to young man yearning to be an artist."

The Cast Away star, 59, admits his first marriage at 21 and having two kids had been to "quell loneliness".

He picked Talking Heads' Once In A Lifetime as a tribute to his first date with second wife Rita Wilson. They married in 1988.

He said: "I don't think I'll ever be lonely any more - that's how I felt when I met my wife."

OFFENDED Customer Keith

Diners' rage as KFC plays N-word rap

BY STEPHEN HAYWARD

A FURIOUS dad of three has blasted a fast food chain for blaring out rap music, including offensive lyrics containing the N-word.

Keith Preddie was outraged when he popped into his local KFC with a pal and heard the music.

He says the person serving struggled to hear him as the music was so loud - and claims staff refused to turn it off, instead only turning the music down.

Keith, 47, said: "I was shocked and disgusted that employees were listening to rap and hip-hop music with lyrics including the N-word."

Keith, who is a part-time DJ, was in the West Wickham, Bromley, branch. "My friend, who is white, was also shocked. I said this is out of order," he added.

KFC has promised Keith it will launch a "full investigation into the matter".

Michelle soldiers on in Lads Army

TROOPER Michelle and co-stars relax after filming in Cape Town

ACTING UP Selfie with co-star

KEE ROLE In gun pose with Our Girl cast

COUPLE With her DJ hubby

EXCLUSIVE
BY SHARON FEINSTEIN

MICHELLE Keegan may be Our Girl, but she's certainly one of the boys too.

The actress spent two months as the only woman surrounded by burly men. But husband Mark Wright needn't be jealous - as the show's stunt chief revealed it was all part of Michelle getting into the mindset of her Army medic character Corporal Georgie Lane.

The ex-Corrie star, 28, was apart from DJ hubby Mark, 29, while filming Our Girl 2 in Cape Town.

She wed the former TOWIE star last July. But rumours of marital problems surfaced during her stint in South Africa when she took off her wedding ring and Mark flew out with his parents.

Stuntman Paul Pieterse said Mark only visited Michelle on set once. But he explained: "Michelle is playing a tough, dedicated soldier who has to get everything right and she didn't want her husband distracting her. She was alone in Cape Town the whole time because she wanted to focus on her character."

"Her husband didn't stick around at all. When Michelle is working, she is working. It's a tough role. She did very well."

Michelle also had to hold her own when the cameras stopped rolling.

Paul added: "She had to be with a big bunch of men all day and when boys are together they are naughty and talk about all the wrong stuff. It was hard for her in and out of the role."

Michelle Keegan and her husband Mark Wright are shown in a photo.

ANNUL POINTS

EXCLUSIVE BY PHIL CARDY

EUROVISION hopeful Joe Woolford and his girlfriend have split up just a week before the contest.

The singer, one half of the UK entry Jake and Joe, had been dating hairdresser Sally Matischok, 23, for two years.

It is believed she had been planning to fly out to the show in Stockholm to support him on Saturday.

But a friend of Joe, 21, revealed they have ended the relationship. And Sally later confirmed it was over but said they were still friends. The pal said Welsh PE teaching assistant Joe had been spending a long time away from home since being chosen to represent the UK, singing You're Not

Eurovision singer Joe splits with girlfriend a week before contest

Alone with ex-rival from The Voice, Jake Shakeshaft. He said: "It came as a surprise to us all as everyone thought they were happy. I guess he's got too much going on at the moment."

Another pal told us: "Joe and Sally had been on a break since last month and decided to go their separate ways. Joe wishes Sally all the best for the future."

Joe gushed about Sally, of Ruthin, North Wales, on The Voice last year as he flirted with mentor Rita Ora. He told how her compliments made his mates "extremely jealous" but said he only had eyes for Sally.

Joe and Jake, 20, of Stoke, will be hoping to avoid the fate of last year's Eurovision entrants Electro Velvet who came third last, scoring just five points.

The UK last won the contest in 1997, when Katrina and the Waves performed the ballad Love Shine A Light. The boys have automatically qualified for Saturday's BREAK-UP Joe was with Sally for two years final, along with the hosts and the other members of the 'Big Five', France, Germany, Italy and Spain. An audience of 200 million worldwide is expected to watch the show.

phil.cardy@trinitymirror.com

STOCKHOLM CITY GUIDE: PAGE 49